Part B – Definitions

Annuitant – means the person entitled to receive the annuity benefits and on whose life the contingent events have to occur for the Benefits to be payable.

Guarantee Period – means the period chosen at Policy inception for which the annuity is guaranteed to be payable to the Annuitant or Nominee upon the Annuitant's death.

Policyholder – means the owner of the Policy, as stated in the Policy Schedule.

Premium/Purchase Price – means the amount stated in the Policy Schedule, payable to secure the benefits under this Policy, excluding taxes and levies.

Primary Annuitant – refers to the individual whose life events are of primary importance in affecting the timing or amount of payout under the contract.

Secondary Annuitant – refers to the second life for the purpose of a joint life Annuity option.

Surrender – means complete withdrawal/termination of the entire Policy Contract.

Surrender Value – means an amount, if any, payable in case of Surrender of the Policy during its term, per the terms and conditions of the Policy.

Part C – Benefits

Annuity Option chosen: Joint Life Annuity with 100% annuity to the Secondary Annuitant and return of Purchase Price. Annuity payments of Rs. 10,800 will be made monthly in arrears for as long as Ramesh Kumar Naidu (the Annuitant) is alive, or the Secondary Annuitant Sunita Naidu is alive.

Death Benefit: Rs. 18,00,000 will be paid to the registered Nominee, Sunita Naidu (Wife), per the terms applicable to the chosen Annuity Option.

Part D – Policy Servicing Aspects

Alterations: No alterations are permissible under the Policy.

Loans: Where the chosen option includes return of premiums, a loan of up to 50% of the surrender value is available at the prevailing interest rate (currently 9% p.a., reviewed half-yearly).

Free Look Cancellation: The Policyholder may return the Policy within 30 days of receipt, stating reasons, for a refund of the Premium/Purchase Price paid (less stamp duty and any annuity already paid).

Surrender Benefit: 10% of the Premium/Purchase Price (Rs. 18,00,000) is available as a Surrender Benefit under the chosen option, subject to Special Surrender Value (SSV) provisions.

Part E – Charges

Additional Servicing Charges: Not applicable.

Part F – General Terms & Conditions

Exclusions: There are no exclusions under this Policy.

Age Admitted: Premium/Purchase Price has been calculated on Ramesh Kumar Naidu's declared age (60 years, DOB 14/06/1966). Corrections on subsequent proof of age will be handled per Part F Clause 2 of the base policy document.

Assignment: This Policy cannot be assigned.

Nomination: Sunita Naidu (Wife) has been nominated under Section 39 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended.

Incorrect Information and Non-Disclosure: Fraud and misrepresentation are dealt with under Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended (see Annexure III).

Jurisdiction: This Policy is governed by the laws of India; Indian courts have jurisdiction over disputes.

Part B – Definitions

Annuitant – means the person entitled to receive the annuity benefits and on whose life the contingent events have to occur for the Benefits to be payable.

Guarantee Period – means the period chosen at Policy inception for which the annuity is guaranteed to be payable to the Annuitant or Nominee upon the Annuitant's death.

Policyholder – means the owner of the Policy, as stated in the Policy Schedule.

Premium/Purchase Price – means the amount stated in the Policy Schedule, payable to secure the benefits under this Policy, excluding taxes and levies.

Primary Annuitant – refers to the individual whose life events are of primary importance in affecting the timing or amount of payout under the contract.

Secondary Annuitant – refers to the second life for the purpose of a joint life Annuity option.

Surrender – means complete withdrawal/termination of the entire Policy Contract.

Surrender Value – means an amount, if any, payable in case of Surrender of the Policy during its term, per the terms and conditions of the Policy.

Part C – Benefits

Annuity Option chosen: Life Annuity with Return of Premium/Purchase Price on diagnosis of Critical Illness. Annuity payments of Rs. 2,52,000 will be made annual in arrears for as long as Suresh Pillai (the Annuitant) is alive.

Death Benefit: Rs. 40,00,000 will be paid to the registered Nominee, Lakshmi Pillai (Wife), per the terms applicable to the chosen Annuity Option.

Benefit payable on diagnosis of Critical Illness: Rs. 40,00,000 (the Purchase Price) will be paid to the Annuitant upon diagnosis of a specified Critical Illness before age 85, as listed in Part C Clause 1(4) of the base policy document (Cancer of Specified Severity, Open Chest CABG, Myocardial Infarction, Kidney Failure Requiring Regular Dialysis, Major Organ Transplant, and Stroke Resulting in Permanent Symptoms).

Part D – Policy Servicing Aspects

Alterations: No alterations are permissible under the Policy.

Loans: Where the chosen option includes return of premiums, a loan of up to 50% of the surrender value is available at the prevailing interest rate (currently 9% p.a., reviewed half-yearly).

Free Look Cancellation: The Policyholder may return the Policy within 30 days of receipt, stating reasons, for a refund of the Premium/Purchase Price paid (less stamp duty and any annuity already paid).

Surrender Benefit: Not available for the chosen Annuity Option (Surrender Benefits apply only to the five Return-of-Purchase-Price-linked options).

Part E – Charges

Additional Servicing Charges: Not applicable.

Part F – General Terms & Conditions

Exclusions: There are no exclusions under this Policy.

Age Admitted: Premium/Purchase Price has been calculated on Suresh Pillai's declared age (65 years, DOB 09/01/1961). Corrections on subsequent proof of age will be handled per Part F Clause 2 of the base policy document.

Assignment: This Policy cannot be assigned.

Nomination: Lakshmi Pillai (Wife) has been nominated under Section 39 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended.

Part B – Definitions

Annuitant – means the person entitled to receive the annuity benefits and on whose life the contingent events have to occur for the Benefits to be payable.

Guarantee Period – means the period chosen at Policy inception for which the annuity is guaranteed to be payable to the Annuitant or Nominee upon the Annuitant's death.

Policyholder – means the owner of the Policy, as stated in the Policy Schedule.

Premium/Purchase Price – means the amount stated in the Policy Schedule, payable to secure the benefits under this Policy, excluding taxes and levies.

Primary Annuitant – refers to the individual whose life events are of primary importance in affecting the timing or amount of payout under the contract.

Secondary Annuitant – refers to the second life for the purpose of a joint life Annuity option.

Surrender – means complete withdrawal/termination of the entire Policy Contract.

Surrender Value – means an amount, if any, payable in case of Surrender of the Policy during its term, per the terms and conditions of the Policy.

Part C – Benefits

Annuity Option chosen: Joint Life Annuity with 50% annuity to the Secondary Annuitant and return of Purchase Price. Annuity payments of Rs. 1,15,500 will be made half-yearly in arrears for as long as Manoj Chauhan (the Annuitant) is alive, or the Secondary Annuitant Rekha Chauhan is alive.

Death Benefit: Rs. 35,00,000 will be paid to the registered Nominee, Rekha Chauhan (Wife), per the terms applicable to the chosen Annuity Option.

Part D – Policy Servicing Aspects

Alterations: No alterations are permissible under the Policy.

Loans: Where the chosen option includes return of premiums, a loan of up to 50% of the surrender value is available at the prevailing interest rate (currently 9% p.a., reviewed half-yearly).

Free Look Cancellation: The Policyholder may return the Policy within 30 days of receipt, stating reasons, for a refund of the Premium/Purchase Price paid (less stamp duty and any annuity already paid).

Surrender Benefit: 10% of the Premium/Purchase Price (Rs. 35,00,000) is available as a Surrender Benefit under the chosen option, subject to Special Surrender Value (SSV) provisions.

Part E – Charges

Additional Servicing Charges: Not applicable.

Part F – General Terms & Conditions

Exclusions: There are no exclusions under this Policy.

Age Admitted: Premium/Purchase Price has been calculated on Manoj Chauhan's declared age (68 years, DOB 02/03/1958). Corrections on subsequent proof of age will be handled per Part F Clause 2 of the base policy document.

Assignment: This Policy cannot be assigned.

Nomination: Rekha Chauhan (Wife) has been nominated under Section 39 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended.

Incorrect Information and Non-Disclosure: Fraud and misrepresentation are dealt with under Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended (see Annexure III).

Jurisdiction: This Policy is governed by the laws of India; Indian courts have jurisdiction over disputes.
